It was great to meet you, Mike. Until a couple years ago, we were neighbors. I have deep roots in Tulsa. In fact, that's where this show began.

But we're still neighbors, just separated by a few miles. I'm in Bella Vista, Arkansas now.

Wayne,

Sorry for the delay, been off the board for awhile. It was good to meet you as well. I had a good time and am looking forward to next year.

I finally figured out why I had problems connecting for this year. Every time I would check this site, it didn't look like anything was happening.

That's because I'm used to messages being displayed with the newest messages on page 1 and the oldest on the last page. Here the messages are displayed in chronological order from beginning to the end so I need to go to the last page of the thread for the latest information.

I'll be more organized next year.

Mike
