Say Mr. Barbour; was that you who wrote that essay in VTV about modern electronics that segue'd into that expose' of Silicon Valley and the type of individuals populating that area? Some stuff there! If it was'nt; then kudo's to the author. Shortest essay I've read that explains modern America so thoroughly. It's getting so I can't read anything political anymore it's become so spin-centered. Thats why we watch Fox News, it's fair and balanced.
