

---

Subject: Re: High Power Tubes

Posted by metasonix on Wed, 26 May 2004 05:07:09 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

The upper photo is a TH347. Often seen in VHF-TV transmitters I believe. Lower looks like a water-cooled type for industrial RF heating use, not military. Econco's sales engineer is George Badger, who used to be president of Svetlana USA. I have contact info if you want to ask him questions about transmitting tubes. He worked at EIMAC for 40 years, making him one of the world's leading experts.

---