Subject: Re: High Power Tubes

Posted by metasonix on Wed, 26 May 2004 05:07:09 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The upper photo is a TH347. Often seen in VHF-TV transmitters I believe.Lower looks like a water-cooled type forindustrial RF heating use, not military.Econco's sales engineer is George Badger, who usedto be president of Svetlana USA. I have contactinfo if you want to ask him questions about transmittingtubes. He worked at EIMAC for 40 years, making him one ofthe world's leading experts.