Wayne, I'm considering the capacitor upgrade, and I am struggling with spending $200 on Auricaps. How much sonic bliss do the Auricaps offer over the Jantzen Zcaps? I currently have the standard components. I guess I'm asking what the Auricaps bring to the table, the Jantzen cap doesn't? I'm running Bottlehead Paramour 3.5 watts into them, with powered subs filling the bottom end. Thanks.
