Someone call me? Thanks for checking; yesterday I spent a wonderful afternoon removing a virus from the computor. My 14 yr. old plays poker on Pokerroom.com, and I think they tagged me. What a royal PITA. Why can't these kids hang out in pool rooms like we did?I would like to say that I was not aware that A.K. has his own site for reviews; that being the case I re-refer respectfully to him, since he has a better chance of getting the word out; thanks for the consideration and I would still love to hear the amp after his review. J.R.(Wait..,was that poetry at the end of that post?)
