It's a great little amp. I'm on the list to buy one. I auditioned it in the summertime, and there's no way I'd let the group buy pass me by. It's the best deal in its price range by a large margin, in my opinion.I like some of the other entry level tube amp kits too, but this one is sooooo much better. More clean power and better looks too. It's just a really fine little amp.
