Dang it, Madison. Now I'm never going to be able to get that song out of my head. It's way too catchy. I wouldn't have thought of that song off the top of my head though because it never really annoyed me too much. It's just too, well, happy. The song "Poker Face" probably takes a top ten spot for me. It's so easy to get it stuck in my head, even though I absolutely hate it.
