Wow, Steve, those look awesome!

Great to hear from you!

I love the color - Looks like a dark blue - is that the lighting or are the actually that color? Nice touch!

Wayne, Glad you like the looks. They are True Blue (Behr Marquee paint). I was going to veneer them, even bought the veneer. However, the cabinets were slightly over 200 lbs without drivers and I could not physically maneuver them by myself to safely veneer.
