Looking forward to meeting you! We've been doing this show for the last dozen years or so, and a couple years in Tulsa before that.

Having been to other shows in other parts of the country, I have to say this show is the most fun, by far! It's not the biggest show, but it's definitely the best, at least for me.

The Lone Star AudioFest is laid back and intimate, and everyone there is there because of a love of music with much less emphasis on commercialism than other shows. If that sounds like your kind of place, you're probably going to love it there!

Sounds like my kind of place to be! Thanks
