I am in the UK too, and I quite like zipping over to mainland Europe for some of the music festivals there. Ghent (Belgium) has a music festival in July every year. I'm not going this year, unfortunately, but in the past I've seen the Pogues there, and the brilliant Belgian band Noordkaap, who broke up some years ago.

I also like the Stockholm Water Festival, and have seen Iggy Pop there, as well as Suede, Elvis Costello, and other good bands/artists.
