Here are the rules for posting on AudioRoundTable.com:
Posting Rules
Rules against commercial posts are suspended in the Swap Meet forum. "For Sale" ads are allowed in the Swap Meet forum, provided they are from private sellers and not from an organization, institution or company. Company ads are supported by sponsorship, but only audio companies are offered sponsorship. We want to limit our scope, so that we aren't spanned by all sorts of products and services. The only exception to that are ads that pop-up from Google. The AdSense algorithm usually places ads that match what is written in the threads where ads are displayed, but not always.
