I thought another good review ought be included. Found this at the vinyl engine where I hang out like a nose vegetable you can't get rid of. Someone put a link for an audio blog that included his take on the 2018 LSAF show. http://noaudiophile.com/Lone_Star_2018/
He seems to know his audio pretty good and writes quite frankly with occasional expletives thrown in for good conveyance towards the silly and absurd aspect of audiophilea. He puts in a good word for Pi speakers.
