It was very well acted I thought. Capturing what one would imagine the period of history was like. Brutish and short. The language helped I thought. I don't mind captions. Many fine foreign films I've seen with it. The ending didn't bother me too much, though a pity. As the young maiden was suspect of being touched by the evil's plans. Another soul to add to it's collection. I guess the screenplay was an amalgamation of the time period's fable's and folk tales. Glad you confirmed it's quality. Fine cinema.
