Could I please get the 4pi plans? I keep getting turned onto to them from reading forums. About 10 years ago I build 3 of the Zilch econowaves to start setting up home theater and they were great but I was never really ecstatic enough with them to finish the 5. Maybe its me but something didn't seem kosher with the quick and dirty design surrounding a so so flat pack cabinet but they were great for garage speakers. I love how easy it is to understand speech with horns so I'm thinking about building some better horns for a 5.1 with possible height speakers.

Thanks,
Zig
