

---

Subject: Re: Corner horn listening distance

Posted by Wayne Parham on Tue, 02 Jun 2020 15:53:22 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

The best listening area is a few feet behind the point where the forward axes cross. A good rule of thumb is to consider the "sweet spot" to be the area between the speakers starting where the axes cross and back from that about double the distance from speakers to where the axes cross. So in your case, that would be from six feet back to about twelve feet back.

Imaging, placement and orientation

---