

---

Subject: Re: out of my way Flanders! I've got a class to teach!

Posted by Damir on Sun, 16 Oct 2005 16:16:37 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

I'd start with alternate/direct current, and Ohm's and Kirchoff's Laws. I noticed that many DIY-ers don't understand fully rms, peak, peak-to-peak, AC "superimposed" on DC, AC input/output on tube stages, computing the anode and cathode resistors, etc.

---