Despite all the negative reviews about the brand, I decided to give them a chance since they're budget friendly. They are much better than I expected! The music isn't as crisp as what you'd hear with a high-end set, but I haven't experienced distortion or anything like that. The battery lasts for ages too. They fit great and don't slip out when I start sweating. They block out some ambient noise, but not so much that running outside with earbuds puts me in danger. Some folks turn their nose up at the brand, but I'm happy with my earbuds.
