I know there are some fans here of the sci-fi franchise. Does anyone else watch the animated series, Star Trek: Lower Decks? It's one of their best spin-offs, in my opinion, even if it's a cartoon. The humor is still there, but it's different enough that I don't spend the whole time comparing it to previous shows. I thought it would be a great way to introduce my boys to the franchise. They like it, but it's more of an adult show, so they miss some of the jokes. It's not particularly vulgar though. It's more like King of the Hill than Family Guy in that instance. So if you've seen it, what do you think?
