They know all the angles and they've mapped it out to maximize their profit. Then the bigger companies will devour the smaller until it's just a few left that will control the pricing. Otherwise known as monopolies. That's how our economy works these days. The future keeps getting brighter all the time.
I just catch air tv and use the Roku to grab whatever programming that isn't total junk. It's mostly junk. But so is the payfer streaming from my gander at it.
