I'm wrapping up the listening to the KR Audio VA 340 amplfier and finally switched the 300BXLS tubes for the 842VHD.Both types output 20 watts. But where the 300BXLS is a very good but more powerful 300B, the 842 is a brand new listening experience. Forget about every other tube or designer: 45, 845, 811, Yamamoto, Brenneman, Welborne....I'm listening to Eva Cassidy Songbird and Joni Mitchell's Hits over and over for the pure joy of it. Got$6800 U.S.? You need one of these!
I talked Alfred into letting me keeping it another month
