That's really awesome!

Indeed :)

Minor correction: The concert was recorded in Paris in September 1979 - but released in 1984.

Hello, it's me again :)

I found out that the cover contains an interview with Bill Evans and Kim Aikin in Contemporary Keyboard that hasn't been published online, and it's difficult to get a copy of the magazine from 1980.

So I've published the most interesting passages here, shoud someone stumble on this thread.

And here's a photo of the the albums front showing the gardens of Château de Sceaux around 10 miles from the center of Paris. A place I'd like to visit.
