Lets hear it for Castro! Xiromara Castro, president of Honduras. She is challenging the World Court and the cryptoquistadors in Honduras trying to squeeze it's citizens over their greed of easy money. With the help of our two faced State Department. This thread about crypto should be a warning of it's nature to rip people off. The big fish eat the little fish and anyone who thinks this scheme is worthwhile is kidding themselves.

The US has used Central and South America as it's investment portfolio and colonial outpost to extract resources and labor since the Monroe Doctrine of 1823.

Hopefully, the times, they are a-changin.
