Kelly and I went and saw "Beetlejuice Beetlejuice" this weekend and I loved it.

Kelly thought it was stupid but I really liked it. It was stupid, but I still liked it. Just like the 1988 film. But it did have a couple extra cast members:

Monica Bellucci as Delores

You gotta admit she looks good even when all stitched up.

...and...

Jenna Ortega as Astrid, standing beside Winona Ryder as Lydia

Astrid is Lydia's kid, which is the perfect cast 'cause Jenna Ortega is practically Winona Ryder's clone.

So if you're in the mood for a good ol' weird and lively Tim Burton movie, I'm giving this one two thumbs up. It even has Danny Elfman on the soundtrack. Of course. :)
