The AI source to use now is a Chinese app called DeepSeek. A "free" open source platform to the world. What to do first though is to view this video explaining how this new AI platform had caused havoc with the model of financialized AI use that was being developed by Silicon Valley in the US. <https://geopoliticeconomy.com/2025/01/29/china-deepseek-ai-big-tech-bubble/>

The blogger, Ben Norton goes through the particulars and hypocrisy of what the US existential war on China has amounted to. Capitalism vs socialism. A country rising to its high potential vs a country devolving into an oligarchical has been.
