I think the point of what you've been trying to say in this thread is there are some selfish and even corrupt people in this country using ugly force to do nefarious activities around the world. You're saying it isn't fair and it isn't good. You're saying there's a lot of manipulation and much of what we read and hear in the media is spin.

I think you're saying that happens in Europe too.

I'm with Wayne on this. At one time long ago I used to think the US was largely above all that stuff. Now I'm sure they are as involved as most others. What I see as a more immediate issue is that we as a country are engaged in a death spiral in both the economic and political senses. we have someone who wants to be a King and run the whole world. A large percentage of the world (and our population) doesn't want any of that. Worse the folks in positions that could put an end to it are sitting on their butts.
