Oh wow, let me know what you think! I may have to buy a pair and check 'em out for myself!

I have a pair of original Tung Sol 6550 tubes. Not NOS 'cause I use 'em from time to time. But I treat them like they are precious family China. Not for use every day. Not even for every Christmas. Only for Christmas' when royalty visits. LOL!

And I have a bunch of Mullard 12AX7 tubes, which I have found that I like a lot. So I'd be happy to try Mullard KT88s. Not sure how I missed those before now. Somehow, I looked right passed 'em, I guess.
