A new movie with Tom Cruise will be out in the fall that looks like a total departure from his usual high octane features. I've never been a big fan, but have likened a few of his roles.

I don't know the jest of this role, other than he's a gazillionaire, old and does something that threatens the whole planet if I read it right. A dark comedy its billed as. I'll wait for the reviews for if I go see it. At a real theater. Which I haven't been in since prior to the pandemic. Can't even remember what I saw.
