I've been busy at the workshop all day only to come online tonight to read that Dolly Parton is

While we were growing up, we couldn't get enough of her songs like "Coat of Many Colors" and "Jolene."

I remember always playing Jolene any time that my wife is around. It is always a sweet moment.

Her kindness amidst her achievements were heartwarming. I pray for her family and all of us, the fans, in this difficult situation. I've been playing her songs for an hour now. Is anyone else playing her songs in a way to honour her today
