www.pispeakers.com seems to now go to a link page which has nothing to do with Pi Speakers!
Well at least the forum is still here.Paul

I've been having some real problems with hackers from one prominent pro sound website for the past couple months, since around Christmas. Hopefully, the sysadmin will get it fixed soon.Ironically, the ART server seems much more solid. We get some junk here from time to time, but it's usually just spam that's pretty easy to delete.

If you didn't get a reply from me, then I probably didn't get your E-Mail. Please resend.
