I have been using this site to explore some new music and it has a lot of potential; samples of hundreds of bands at a good sample rate. Found some real nice stuff.

Thanks , MB, I'm exploring now -- way outa my depth, though!  Any groups in particular you suggest I investigate?

Speakers are looking nice! I have been listening to one band from the G-band site. Its a female lead band called "Circe Link", a cd called "Blue Bird Tattoo." It is placed in Americana. They have a little of Dan Hicks and The Hot Licks type sound, with that Django Rhienhart background. She has a nice voice and the lyrics are pretty clever on some of the songs.
