Does the JBL 2226h sound any different than the Omega 15 in the Bass region. Thanks for the reply.

short answer: Yes. I had the Omega'a for a long time and was very happy with them. In fact, I had the 2226's for about a yr. before I put them in. When I did, I was amazed... If you can afford them, go for the JBL's right away, if not, the Omega's are very good for the $$.
