Subject: A treasure trove of American Music
Posted by Bill Epstein on Tue, 30 Aug 2005 21:52:08 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Someone with an amazing collection of 78's (I conjecture) has burned them onto CD. A company called Allegro Corp. has dozens of compilations of recordings from the 20's, 30's and 40's. All with original artists and many live.I bought "Toast To Broadway", a 2CD set. One disc is all Irving Berlin and the other Cole Porter. An astounding $6.99 at the bookstore.Artie Shaw, Judy Garland, Dick Haymes, Peggy Lee, Bing, Frankie, Mel, Lena, Ella; you get the idea.Eevry cut sounds great. Even the Al Jolson and Marlene Dietrich that must have been shellacs.Skeezix!!!
Allegro Music

Subject: Re: A treasure trove of American Music
Posted by Wayne Parham on Wed, 31 Aug 2005 04:25:28 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

That's pretty cool, Bill. Thanks for the tip!