Another "Lyncher", again its a very different movie. Protraying teh madness behind the scenes in the criminal underworld in a small town. Good flick though odd..

I kind of liked that movie, sort of like Mulholland Drive. Isabella Rossellini is pretty hot too, so that's a bonus.

The Cult! Dennis Hopper is fantastic - from spooky "sexy" scenes to abnormal violence...one of the best films "negative persons" of all times. Hey, his experience of Roy Orbison song, high on some unknown gas - from tears to demonic violence... I just can`t look at R. Orbison like before:-)

You're so right! Dennis Hopper seems to always play that role. He's a likeable psychotic in almost every movie I've seen him in.
