My horse won the Derby!! Smarty Jones paid $10.20 to win in the Derby today. Not a bad payoff. But not as good as the Futures Bet that ended April 4. I wrote about that bet with Smarty Jones last month in the post below. I hate it when that happens. Good race, though.

Damn, Jeff, that's great! You sure did hit it with that one! Didja have any money on it? Tell me that you did.

I had $25 on Smarty to win. I don't have my ticket with me, but I think it paid about $127.50. Not too bad. The Cliff's Edge lost me money on both a trifecta and superfecta bet. I can't seem to stay away from the exotic bets. I have these delusions of grandeur. I've known for years not to bet more than exactas. If I could only do that in practice. Overall, I came out a little ahead. Thanks for asking, Wayne.
