Yes; sometimes it is lonely being a contrarian. Having a viewpoint that is not shared by many is a lonely and solitary thing. But; someone has to do it. Otherwise everyone would;...what? Sit around agreeing all the time. Yawn.

Yes, themes like "let`s euthanasy everyone over 70 years of age, less medical expenses", and tomorrow "let`s have free medical insurance for everyone, without limits". And little GWB into all of this (guilty in all cases:-)); then sit back and enjoy in "angry" responses (at least, Mr Vinyl and me:-))...

Who siad all that stuff? I missed it. Euthanise everyone over 70? I'd have to kill my own mom and dad. Free medical insurance? You are right; lets have no medical insurance and watch people die. And yes; GWB is the worst president ever in our history; finally surpassing Grover Cleveland. Mr Vinyl is blinded by propoganda and has lost the capacity to think for himself. Thats why he hangs on every word of the Bush News on Fox.
