What now; we are going to have to hear fifty speeches from the three stooges about Hitler and Iraq; two episodes of history that have absolutely no common meaning whasoever, in the run-up to the fall elections? Is there anything these guys could be doing a little more productive; wait...what am I saying; they screwed up everything they ever touched; maybe we are better off if they just run their mouths instead of starting anbother disaster. Either way please get this horror over with in two years; I can't stand another lying speech of useless rhetoric.
