Who would have thought? I'm sure it's Bush's fault somehow Safety rankings of the nation's 10 largest cities:1. New York: one crime per 37.38 residents.2. San Jose, Calif.: one crime per 34.46 residents.3. Los Angeles: one crime per 25.97 residents.4. San Diego: one crime per 24.09 residents.5. Chicago: one crime per 21.9 residents.6. Philadelphia: one crime per 17.96 residents.7. Houston: one crime per 14.17 residents.8. San Antonio: one crime per 14.12 residents.9. Phoenix: one crime per 14.10 residents.10. Dallas: one crime per 11.79 residents.

It's money. The price of rent has driven the bad element out of these places. Most people paying 3500$ a month for a one bedroom apt aren't petty criminals; although they may work on Wall Street and be big criminals; or in Hedge Fund Management and be REALLY big criminals.Places like Pheonix are old in the demograpthic sense; old people don't commit crimes as much.
