Do we take them out or let China deal with them? I'm nervous enough with India and Pakistan in the nuclear club, but NK just makes me scared.....C

Yeah, that's a pretty big deal. I've heard they may be using it as a bargaining chip to gain financial aid. Whatever their motive, it would certainly seem to be a destabilizing influence.

The phrase "nuke back to the Stone Age" seems to apply here, but that would be a step forward. That was a pretty big sabre to rattle. I hope this is done with quickly.....C

NK's nuclear tactic to gain favors from the rest of the world is like a spoiled child throwing a tantrum in public in order to embarrass his parents into giving him what he wants.
