Got to sell something to audiophile's that can go out and blow $10,000 on a speaker cable. From some of the testimonials it sounds like they need a breakin time of a few hours also.LOL.Look at the guy that came up with the "Pet Rock" years ago, selling stupid little rocks you can pick up off the ground, now the guys a millionaire.It's all in the marketing, look at Bose, oh wait won't even go there.Bill W.
