Of course. While all the men population will be watching it, there will be millions of women who are bored and lonely...

He put on one hell of a show. I wonder if this is the biggest audience he has ever played to if TV viewers are included?

I hadn't thought about that, but you may be right. I wonder if it topped 2002? He's done a lot of highly visible events, but the Super Bowl certainly is high in the ratings. What a change from last year, huh?

I had to laugh at the end when he kept saying;"Thank you superbowl;thank you superbowl!" You would think he'd say Jacksonville or something.

As long as it is not Linda; I just never understood that one. He could'a had anyone he wanted. All of them, The Beatles. Yoko; Harrison looks good. I guess if you can have steak everyday once in a while you want hamburger.

Hmm, maybe I'm strange - but I'd rather staring on her on the beach all day long than watching bunch of man running for the ball, or old "rockers"....

Peaches

I don't know; biggest paycheck; McCartney? Thats the big leagues there.Maybe the highest amount ever paid for three songs.Boy he is looking old. Do we look that way? Or maybe me?I wish they would cut the crap and play ball, Johnny Unitas is rolling in his grave. All this hoopla about half-time and those damn commercials, four hours to play a one hour game. I think they have reached the river of no return on this one.

They were suppose to play that commercial twice but when it aired the first time FOX got a call from the NFL to cut it, so they didn't show it a second time.
