I have been getting a lot of spam lately. Much of it is for Viagra, Cialis, and other stuff at a discount.1. It is illegal to send spam2. It is illegal to sell drugs without a prescriptionSo, anybody willing to break the law to send spam (even if they had a way to get around #2) is NOT to be trusted, right?So WHO WOULD BE INCREDIBLY STUPID ENOUGH TO SEND MONEY TO THESE PEOPLE????So, they even send you a little blue pill. What are the chances that it is the real thing and not some Chinese rip-off!I just can't imagine how these spammers don't go out of business overnight, because nobody would buy anything from them.(Well, then again, anybody who would pay $100/foot or more for speaker cable...)

No kidding! Even if it weren't illegal or whatever, who in the hell buys something from one of those SPAM letters? I mean, really.The Enzyte commercials are hilarious though. They may be sending a ton of SPAM, but the silly grinning couple really cracks me up.

because you have a limp penis, you ought to get a low rate when you mortgage your house, so you can buy our new Cialis sugar pill which will give you a bigger tool, so that you can give us your personal opinion about your bank account and fix your paypal account and Citibank account, so that the Nigerian cannot drain all of it before we get to it.YEEEEEEAAAAOOOOWWWWWWW!I haven't seen the smiling couple. I feel discriminated against!!!
