Seems there may be some cracks forming in the walls of Mordor. Shards of light thrusting into the Darkside. They can't get recruits to join their army; recruitment is down 18% from last year and falling. Pat Tillmans people are baying down their necks looking for answers, the British sent a clear message about how they feel about the oil invasion. Carl Rove is shut up in his lair frantically pumping out the propoganda. Social Security is safe from the pirates; Frist is beaten in public like a mongrel dog and DeLay is hounded like a crooked CEO. The lockstep replicants are breaking ranks to save their own hides and distancing themselves from the fundamentalist wackos in hopes of retaining a shred of credibility for their next run for office. Redemption for the clear thinking and the rebellion of the electorate appears to be congealing into a tide of recrimination as the depth of the incompetence becomes apparent. The title of most hated nation weighs heavily on the conscience of the people. The coup of 2000 is fracturing under the weight of lies and betrayals of confidence. The worst nightmare of a despot is the awakening of the populace. The time is nigh for the good people to restore integrity to the nation.

We have sown the wind and are reaping the whirlwind.
