Subject: 9/11
Posted by Manualblock on Tue, 31 May 2005 19:03:26 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Well; it's official, more time has passed between 9/11 and now than passed between Pearl Harbor and the end of WW2. And our enemies are still at large and still killing American kids. The Afghanies hate us and the Iraqi's are getting there and Iran has nuclear weapons. We see photos of Al Zarqawi on the news every day. Somebody has screwed the pooch. Is it time for the rummy to resign due to incompetence? Or do we let him continue to screw up. If this was a private firm; he woulda' been long gone by now.