Whats next; they give up your medical records and then you are brought in for questioning at their discretion. This is how the bad stuff started throughout history in every totalittarian regime. First they get all your personal records; then...well we all now what happens after that. NSA; National Snoop Agency. Too bad they can't get Osama.

Imagine this - you are an ambitious young businessman, selling fake Viagra and "enlarge-your-penis" pumps by Internet, and "widening" your business horisons with young shaved girls pornography... What`s more natural than becoming a politician?After a few years, you are sitting in the office, dreaming of young black kids, while signed the document about less money for public schools and their projects... Then you pick the newspapers, finding this news about your church donation...must be there, you payed for it...Then - the catastrophe! There`s a transcript of your phone-call to your favorite domina, five years ago, about how you are so tired and really need a little golden shower...Argh...you forgot to validate expensive public school project about a new parking lots "for the teachers"...and obviously offended important people...To be continued...dirty cell-phone conversation with your secretary, seven years ago - tommorow...

Where are you going with this D-Man? I hope you are not one who implies the old kindergarden rule that if you are innocent then you have nothing to hide?See when one party is in control; then everyone who is not part of that group is guilty. So when they access your phone records you lose your job/friends/home/etc. Like what happenned here during the red scare and lots of innocent people lost everything because of government snooping and suspician. They didn't do anything wrong; just belonged to the wrong club.

Hey, don't ask me to explain the cynical jokes, and why is worst sin for the public (pornography and "enlarge-your-equipment" consumers) some sex scandal then financial and war issues, for example?

Perfect example; They spend millions of dollars in legal fees trying to hang a noose around Bill Clinton and when that doesn't work; they get some twit to have consensual sex with him and then impeach him for being a man. This is why they call America now; "Nanny Nation".
