"If we're not willing to use it here against our fellow citizens, then we should not be willing to use it in a wartime situation," said Wynne. "What the hell kind of statement is that? Our government likes war, but doesnt like to fight?

Yes; I think we definately require an interpreter for that one. Let me ask; when you were growing up and out; do you remmember your dad or the other men in your life saying such dumb shit? I don't; even loaded they sounded more lucid than most of our leaders on both sides do now.Can you imagine Eike talking like that?Different world. What I really want to know thats really pissing me off now is when are we gonna stop pandering to that little weasel Mushareff; that back-stabbing slime ball; and make him give up Osama from where he has him safely ensconced in some Pakistani safe-house?Then when do we grab the Saudi royal family and sqeeze their testicles and make them stop funding Al Queda?And get our troops home here; where they belong?

There is a lack of fortitude amongsth the leaders these days. Your right, I dont remember the men of the past talking all this pif paf pre negotiated dribble.Sure, back room deals were made well in advance even centuries ago. but the deals made today draw no conclusions. its just more, more and more. dribble.
