

---

Subject: Summer Sci-Fi

Posted by DICK on Fri, 22 May 2009 20:02:17 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

This summer bodes well for sci-fi fans. Plenty of pulse pounding pyrotechnics. And a couple here that may give more to ponder. MOON, starring Sam Rockwell and directed by David Bowie's son could be very interesting. A lone miner confronts his double near the end of his 3 yr. assignment alone on the far side of the moon. <http://www.sonypictures.com/classics/moon/trailer.html> . And one that to me looks very interesting called DISTRICT 9. Aliens are marooned here on planet earth, in Africa, in Johannesburg and subjected to apartheid conditions. A rotten multinational company controls their lives. <http://www.d-9.com/> . There is an unpixelated version of the creature being interrogated also on the net. Good stuff maynard.

---

---

Subject: Re: Summer Sci-Fi

Posted by Wayne Parham on Sat, 23 May 2009 13:18:02 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Very cool, thanks for the heads-up. I'll check them out.

---

---

Subject: Re: Summer Sci-Fi

Posted by savveyty on Sun, 21 Jun 2009 06:49:52 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Hi there! Just checked out Moon. It sure is awesome. I'm gonna look for it in stores. Thanks for the tip.

---

---

Subject: Re: Summer Sci-Fi

Posted by Melissa Parham on Mon, 22 Jun 2009 03:46:34 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Thank you so much for this post, Sam Rockwell is the top of my favorite actor list, and I have not even heard of this film yet.

The trailer looks very intriguing. Thanks again!! Melissa

---

---

Subject: Re: Summer Sci-Fi

Posted by takatenamano on Fri, 26 Jun 2009 07:18:08 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

That movie is great, for those who are like me who love those types of movies of course. You really won't stop watching the movie when you're already in the scene when he saw a dead body... Of himself.

---

---

Subject: Re: Summer Sci-Fi
Posted by DICK on Sat, 11 Jul 2009 17:08:49 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

I saw the movie Moon yesterday. A very good film that centers on the gradual discovery of a man's life insidiously and callously being used by a corporate entity. Sam Bell is expendable, over and over again. It's nice to see a sci-fi movie with a real humanistic plot rather than relying on the gee-whiz factor inherent to the genre. The look of the film's setting is very well done though. Why is it that movie makers insist to have sound effects in a vacuum I find curious. Stanley Kubrick kept it true to form. The other movie I first mentioned, DISTRICT 9 just gets more and more interesting as evident in the latest trailer
<http://popwatch.ew.com/popwatch/2009/07/district-9-trailer.html>

---

Subject: Moon
Posted by Wayne Parham on Sat, 11 Jul 2009 17:25:17 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Awesome. Sounds like not only is it cool as a sci-fi, but also as a sort of personal drama that's really fitting for the way things are these days.

I'm eager to see it, for sure. Probably have to wait until it comes out on DVD though. I'm putting it in my Netflix queue right now!

---

Subject: Re: Summer Sci-Fi
Posted by DICK on Tue, 28 Jul 2009 15:28:15 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

More sci-fi and a reoccurring moon theme. How bout Nazi's hiding out on the moon since 1945. Ready to strike earth with their armada of Nazi attack saucers. IRON SKY!! Seig Heil!!
<http://www.ironsky.net/site/>

---