If you have any pictures of your project in process and/or completed, could you post them or direct me to the link?

My wife is asking questions. She is also an avid music lover, and supports me...but if you have some with a nice finish, it wouldn't hurt.

Thanks very much...

Mac

In addition to the photos on the Pi Speakers website and in various posts here in the forum, there are some pics from the Lone Star Audiofest, so check the post about that in the General forum (link below). You'll also see write-ups soon from E-Zines like Dagogo and Positive Feedback Online. They'll have photos too.

nice. He posted a photo in your earlier thread, "Help please ... from the bottom up"
