I just cleaned his album Beaucoups of Blues and played it again. It's only been 30 years since I last played it. It's still dreadful but I read the jacket and there were several to become names that played/sang on it. Most notible were Charlie Daniels, Charlie McCoy, The Jordanaires, Jerry Reed and Jeannie Kendal.Another good note I found my missing Dire Straits lp shoved inside the folding cover of this one Life is good once again.
