Looking for a reliable online CD store for mostly jazz, blues and classical titles.  Any good ones out there?.....

I use Amazon as they guarantee all their sellers.  You can get used or new for decent prices. There are many vendors who sell through Amazon and I have always gotten what I ordered and in good condition.  Just watch the prices as sometime you can get new for used prices if you look down the columns.

Just ordered 4 CDs from Amazon.  I've used Amazon lots in the past, and I've seen the used CDs.  However, I have never taken the time to actually put them in my cart and see how shipping from multiple suppliers works.  Standard shipping charges came out to about $2 per disc.  I hope the CDS are in good enough condition.  Thanks again.....Colin
